COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The Board of Assessors met for a short work session on Tuesday night, July 6, to review correspondence concerning questions of assessment and taxation. Questions involving the recent revaluation project were placed on a list for further review. The Board also discussed office staff responsibilities regarding assessment and proposed changes in the town's assessment record keeping system. The manager reported that from preliminary calculations using the Sewall Company's figures, the estimated 1976 tax rate would be about 17 mills.

Residents are reminded that dogs should be kept under control at all times. In 1973, a state law was passed prohibiting dogs running at large. The term "at large" means a dog "running off the premises of the owner and not under control of any person by means of personal presence and attention as will reasonably control the conduct of such dog." Penalties under the law are imprisonment of the dog or prosecution of the owner. All complaints of violations of this law reported to the Town Office will be referred to the Dog Officer for action.

During the next two-three weeks the town will be taking an inventory of unlicensed automobiles and junk on residents' property. Property owners found to be in violation of the state junkyard or automobile graveyard law will be notified. We urge the cooperation of all citizens in complying with this law.

The Town will be hiring a dump attendant and two maintenance men/laborers next week under the CETA program. Unemployed persons interested in these positions should go to the Rumford Employment Office for certification. Several people have inquired about putting land under Tree Growth or Farm and Open Space. Information and applications are available at the Town Office.

The Board of Selectmen will hold their regular semi-monthly meeting on Monday, July 12, at 7:00 p. m. in the Town Office.

Eveline Barrett, Corres.

What a grand and glorious July 4th the world over. Beautiful weather, bands, parades, floats, children, picnics, boating and what have you. Very calm and peaceful, no fireworks except the amusement parks, then under trained hands.

Joe Barrett suffered a slight stroke June 20. It affected his right arm, hand and leg. I got him to the car in the wheel chair so he went to the parade at Bryant Pond, Saturday. Eveline has had the flu since Thursday afternoon so we have had a royal celebration all by ourselves. June 11-15 I had the flu, now I guess I'll pass it on. Costs money.

John Eates stayed with Joe Barrett Friday morning while Eveline went to the doctor.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kallnowski, "Big Rock" entertained their annual July 4th Hootenanny, honoring the 37th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Lawrence, the 38th anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Records, and birthday of Mrs. Angelo Onofrio. Bob Wilcox was the square dance caller from Connecticut. Eleven musicians in attendance, abundance of foods. Present: Mr. and Mrs. Norman Abbott, Jo-Anne, Mrs. Alice Goff, Mexico; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Chamblero, Connecticut; Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Emery, Mechanic Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Card, Norway; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Tinkander, Stan Durgin, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Record, Heather and Forest, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Record, Maureen, Becky and Martin, South Paris; Mrs. Gail Scribner, Mrs. Leona Curtis, East Bethel; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Royer, Locke Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Onofrio, Bethel; Paul Cote, Auburn; Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Record and James and Brenda, daughter and son, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Lawrence, Audrey Hadley and the host and hostess. A wonderful time.

Trina O'Hara is taking driver's education at O. H. H. S.

Herbert Stevens took his father, John Ester, to Norway on the week end to enjoy the parade. Herbert was in the parade.

Weldon Poland and helpers are disassembling the former Seavey trailer and will move in a larger trailer.

Calling at the Barretts, Norman Abbott, Carmen Chamblero, John Ester, Eva Keniston, Milne Record and grandchildren, Doris Lawrence, Mr. Thibault and son.

At the Community Hall this week there is a large group of children, 31 enrolled, similar to church school. They gathered there last summer and had fun.

Community meeting July 7. Eveline Barrett and Doris Lawrence have donated a 5'x2 1/2' flag for the new flag pole which will be set shortly.

Until next week keep smiling.

Yesterday Dick and I got in the first hay of the season. About time don't you think! The woodchucks are sure enjoying our garden. Hope they leave something for us!

BETHEL'S REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS

Part II

From all available sources, Bethel's 44 Revolutionary soldiers appear to have been a rather homogenous group. Most came to the town from Massachusetts following the cessation of hostilities, but several were here at the time of the Indian Raid of 1781. By far, the great number of them were farmers, but other occupations are represented. Many served in either British or American regiments, others at some of the most celebrated battles of the war. Several were among the leading citizens of the town and took an active part in its affairs. Most had large families from which many live in town today are descended.

Gage, Daniel (1781-1848), married Sarah Grover, father of two children, resided in Massachusetts, settled in Bethel in 1781, when color was shot to be granted colors, soldiers rallied, enemy stopped, cited by Washington for bravery, buried Grover Hill Cemetery.

Gould, Rev. Daniel (1758-1842), first settled minister in Bethel, native of Topsfield, Mass., gave name to Bethel Academy. Left Harvard to serve in Continental Army as orderly sergeant two years, marched to Lexington on April 19, 1775 in company of Capt. Joseph Gould, later moved to Bethel, buried in Bethel Cemetery.

Grover, John, emigrated in the army, served at Dorchester Heights among other battles, died near Plattsburgh, N. Y., settled in West Bethel.

Hastings, Gen. Amos (1757-1828), married Elizabeth Wiley, father of two children, native of Haverhill, Mass., came to Bethel from Fryeburg, leading citizen in early Bethel, enlisted April 17, 1775, helped dig trenches at Bunker Hill, served in that battle and others, captain in American Revolution, later General in the Maine Militia.

Hart, John, born 1764, married Lydia Russell, father of nine children, native of Topsfield, Mass., came to Bethel at age 21, served in Massachusetts theatre of American Revolution, town clerk of Bethel, deacon of Baptist Church, buried in Middle Intervale Cemetery.

Hart, Zeke, born 1788, native of Andover, Mass., also served in the French and Indian Wars, at the surrender of Burgoyne's Army, married Priscilla Abbott, father of six children, recorded as keeping a diary.

Hughes, Samuel, came to Fryeburg, settled in Bethel, later at time of Indian Raid of 1781.

Yorgie, Joseph, in Bethel at first census, 1790.

Mason, Jr., Moses (1787-1861), native of Dublin, N. H., married Eunice Ayers, served in battle of Bennington, buried in Riverside Cemetery, father of 11 children, including Dr. Moses Mason.

Miles, James (1766-1860), married Hannah Mason, father of four children, resided in Bethel, served in the Continental Army 1775-1781, New York, first casualty in Sudbury Canada, killed by a falling tree, buried in Grover Hill Cemetery.

Nelson, Col. Ebenezer, married Sarah Barnard, native of Bethel, Mass., buried in Bethel Cemetery.

Yorgie, Amos (1782-1822), native of Andover, Mass., served in the French and Indian Wars, at the surrender of Burgoyne's Army, married Priscilla Abbott, father of six children, recorded as keeping a diary.

Yorgie, Joseph, in Bethel at first census, 1790.

Write checks on your savings account!

NOW savings with checks

NOW accounts are for savings, too.

You've certainly heard us praise our new NOW account because it gives you personal checking and pays you 5% interest. But have you discovered that Casco's NOW account is also the most convenient and useful savings account ever invented?

For withdrawals, it's far better than banking by mail.

Whenever you wish to withdraw savings from your NOW account, you simply sit down and write a check. You can pay bills directly with NOW checks or make them out to cash. That has to be more convenient than having to come to the bank to withdraw. And it even beats banking by mail.

5% interest on all your balance.

The big advantage to Casco's NOW account is earning 5% interest, compounded daily, on every penny of your balance, no matter what your balance is. And remember, 5% interest is the legal maximum for all banks. That's right, no bank of any kind can pay you any more.

Your checking privilege can be FREE.

No matter what your balance is, you get FREE checks, personalized with your name. And if you keep your new interest-earning balance at $250 or more, there's no charge for the check-writing privilege and no charge per check.

What if your savings balance drops below $250?

If your new interest-earning balance should drop below $250 at sometime during the month, you pay a $1.00 monthly service charge plus 10¢ for each check you write that month. It certainly makes sense, however, to keep your balance at more than $250 to be sure of avoiding all charges.

RATE BREAK

There's another reason to open a Casco NOW account for your savings. The money in your NOW account helps you get a break on the loan rate whenever you borrow. Ask us to explain to you how it can help you borrow for less, and why it makes so much sense to do both your borrowing and your saving at Casco.

Switch to NOW Savings!

If you already have either a checking or a savings account at Casco, and want to switch to a NOW account, just visit your local branch.

If you are not yet a Casco customer, open a Casco NOW account for your savings and let us prove that we are, in fact, always thinking of new ideas to help you. Sign up for NOW Savings at any Casco office.

Greenwood City

Mrs. Collata Morgan, Correspondent

After the rains, the sun streamed again and the chirping song birds greeted the dawn. A glow of beauty lighted my window pane. So from my doorway I ventured out to greet the morning. The air was so fresh and there was much to see: the roses in bloom, the green of everything, the flash of wings, the blue of the sky, flowers below and tall pines above.

So, after a morning of work, Ruth and I started on a walk with little thought of distance and time. At about 1:30, we took one of the three early roads of Greenwood, the Middle Road. This road was built many years ago, starting at the Norway line at North Norway, to our "City," then over Rowe Hill, and down hill to Shadagee. This is the part we took. At one time it was re-routed out by Sheepskin Bog and under a big bluff on the east side of Twitcheil Pond.

Leaving the car at the entrance of this road, we set out along this refreshing shelter where the trees challenged our right to be there in the forest either at noon or at night.

Somewhere along here there once stood a Town House, the site of which I do not know but would like to. We spoke about this and the burning of our "City" in 1862.

The way was lovely, no sound of wheels; where could we leave the road anyway? There were trees, bogs, brooks, and knee high grass. There was plenty to see with summer's blend of colors. The meadow-rue with its feathery graceful flower clusters which serenely erect themselves with cool beauty above grasses and ferns in the wet sections. The grasses grew along the road's edge in a fashion seldom seen; green and cascading, falling to the right and to the left, like hair parted in the middle.

At Sheepskin Bog the mosquitoes appeared in swarms to add music and misery.

After this we came upon Mother Partridge and her babies. She strutted before us and uttered a quick warning cry, at which the "educated" brood scattered. Her piping cry, we could hear from among the trees where she hoped we'd follow.

At the old Dunham farm we stopped for a few minutes and looked at the flowers within the cellar hole. Ruth spoke of visits there when the house was there; now just tranquil green hills, a butterfly, a hushed and golden mood. The old farm has gone back to nature and the years. The once filled fields are woodlands now. The wild pastures where cattle grazed are gone and woodchucks whistle in the sun of summer. A generation or so from now, there'll be a haven for small animals and birds, a setting for continuing life, a woodland of leaf-shade and nests, a forest land of food and wild bird songs. The summer fields enticed us to stay but we thought of our journey ahead so moved on.

Going on by the Brooks home we came to the main road and turned down over the hill. This road ran in bends beckoning us on. At the little cemetery we stopped 'neath the deepening shade of the summer woods. Flags waved over two of the three stones. One was on the marked stone of Eleanor Cole, a Revolutionary soldier, the same Eleanor Cole whose stone is also found in the Daniel Young Cemetery on the cross road between Whittle Hill and the Tubbs District, now discontinued. Maybe he is the only person with two marked graves.

All along, the brooks chuckled and leaped because of the recent rains. They, too, were testing the beauty of the world and celebrating America's 200 years.

So we continued along this country road stretching far, and as we looked ahead it sometimes seemed to meet the sky. The air was fresh and there was the smell of hay.

Beside the road all the way there had been bright clusters of yellow swamp candles to light our way.

Down the hill now we saw high up "the stuff of our mountains" a granite bluff.

Turning left again we were on the road which leads to Locke Mills. Here the traffic was heavy but we found things of interest just the same. Tall-cat tails, lake waves, daisies, golden-eyed and angel leaved, numerous delicate, white, bell-shaped flowers resembling the blue berry blossoms which were the leather-leaf flowers growing behind the cattails. And, oh, the feather softness of the tamaracks, delicate with tiny rose-bud cones!

At the end of Twitcheil Pond we stopped for a brief rest and to look at the pink pond lilies kissed by the wind, visited by the dragonfly blue-gold and crimson. We left these fairy ships where a rippling lullaby seldom ceases as a rippling rustle comes and goes.

We peeped in on the old remaining stone work of a mill first erected about 1850 and last worked by Hanson Cole. I didn't remember it but Ruth did as she used to travel this road more than I did. The road we were on was re-routed from the east side of Twitcheil at the building of the mill dam here, because of the over-throwing of the previous road.

We looked up the "sleigh rock" now hidden from view. Ruth told how her father first introduced her to it.

We checked the time and could scarcely believe that we had been traveling three hours and were not yet at the car.

A long walk and tired but we'd remember it as the light of day slipped into the night of brightening stars and flashing fireflies.

Callers at Ruth Hastings have been her son, Bill, and wife, Gorman, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. Lauri Tamminen, Yarmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Emmons, Norway, were callers at Mr. and Mrs. Aarne Jarvenpaa's.

The John Betts family were at their new home here from New Hampshire for the holidays. They joined the Vernon Innards at their camp the evening of the 4th where they enjoyed swimming and fun.

Fay Holt and I went to East Bethel with Ruth Hastings on Sunday and attended the very fine service at their church. In the evening we went to the First Congregational Church at South

Paris to hear the Candlelight Choralers.

Mr. and Mrs. Nestor Tamminen were at the mineral show in Bethel over the week end.

The Hayes families attended a gathering at the cottage of Del and Betty Hayes on North Pond, Norway, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Hayes, West Paris, and their family, were dinner guests at the Hayes Home-stead on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morris and friends are at their camp at Aziscoos Lake for a few days.

Callers at Frank Curtis' were Mr. and Mrs. Moses Swan, Bryant, Kenneth and Fred Curtis, Local.

Fred Curtis was in Massachusetts this week on a visit.

SKATEBOARD CONTEST IS SUCCESSFUL ON FOURTH OF JULY

For two hours on Sunday the 4th, skateboarders did their thing on Main Street and entertained a curious and enthusiastic crowd of several hundred. This event, which was sponsored by the Bethel Recreation Board, featured slalom and free style competitions. The performances put on by the competitors demonstrated that the youth of Bethel are clearly a part of the American scene—1976.

A highlight of the competition was a tight duel between Peter Keniston and Tim Myers, both of Bethel, in the slalom, in which Keniston beat Myers by one-tenth of a second on the final run. Myra, however, came back to score an impressive victory in the free style.

The slalom for the younger group was equally close, with Rocky Myers beating Robby James by the same one-tenth of a second. In the free style, Scott Hurd was a runaway winner.

The Recreation Board wishes to thank the Board of Selectmen, the Bethel Police and B.E.A.R.S. for their cooperation and assistance in putting on this event.

"STAGECOACH THEATRE" IS PRESENTING "FOURPOSTER" NEXT WEEK
Stagecoach Theatre will open the second week of its summer touring season on Tuesday, July 10, 1976, at Mt. Blue High School, Farmington. The show will be "The Fourposter" by Jan de Hartog. The delightful musical "I Do, I Do" is based on this play. It must be noted that there will be NO PERFORMANCES on Wednesday, July 14, at Livermore Falls Junior High School due to Maine Pulp and Paper Days activities in the area. Instead, the company will travel to Alumni Hall, Phillips.

The remaining performances are Thursday night, July 15, at Mexico High School and Friday night, July 16, at Sugarloaf Base Lodge with Dinner Theatre available.

Directing "The Fourposter" will be Jeffrey Murphy of Farmington. Heidi Woodbury of Farmington will play Agnes and Cliff Travers of Kingsfield will play the husband, Michael.

"The Fourposter", a comedy in three acts, is the chronicle of the marriage of Agnes and Michael, spanning 35 to 40 years. As the director stated, "The show provides an opportunity for a good deal of laughter; yet touches upon the tensions, insecurities and concerns with which two such persons would deal." The scenes revolve around the fourposter which the couple share from their wedding night on. The set will be "minimized" as Stagecoach Theatre philosophy goes. Heidi and Cliff will carry the show.

Curtain on all performances will be 8 p. m. For Dinner Theatre information, call Sugarloaf Base Lodge, 207-237-2000. In the Bethel area, tickets are available at Bingham Gym, Gould Academy. Contact Chris Greenleaf. Tickets also at the door.
